Dear Chef Myles,

What a hoot! This year's Steppin' Out event was an incredible success. We managed to raise more than $200,000 to help the victims of domestic violence and sexual assault in our community. We could not have done it without your help.

Thank you for providing Tomato Bruschetta at our event. The food was outstanding and everyone was amazed with the high quality of the dishes presented. Your contribution helped us achieve our goals.

Every day, more and more victims are coming to us to seek help, in search of an ear that will listen during a very scary time. We are here 24 hours a day, 7 days a week as emergency room companions and hotline counselors. We see clients from morning to night, helping them work through the trauma of abuse to regain a sense of self. We shelter them in hidden facilities to keep them safe from their abusers. We cannot do this without you. In these challenging times of a soft economy and government cutbacks, we need the support of people in the community who believe in our mission of providing comprehensive services to our clients.

On behalf of TurnAround and the clients that we serve, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Leslie Kayne
Executive
